

A Publication of the City of Fairfield, Ohio

Video showcases Fairfield's amenities

In an effort to enhance economic development and promote neighborhood appeal the City recently produced a video that highlights Fairfield's many strengths and how it is different from its neighbors.

Entitled Life, Well Run, it highlights the community as a desirable place to live with tremendous housing stock, quality employers and excellent municipal services. In short, a great place to live, work and play.

In the introduction, Jungle Jim (aka Jim Bonaminio) says "Fairfield is a good run little place." The video gives play to many of the things that make Fairfield great: from

Life, Well Run

- summer concerts on the Village Green to Jungle Jim's to Mercy Health Center.
- Local architect Derek Howard talks about his involvement in the development of the Fairfield Village Green and how it helped to provide Fairfield with a true town center. He also provides praise to the entire community for the development of the Miracle League Fields, a facility that enables children with special needs to enjoy the thrill of playing baseball.

Residents Roni Craig and Lori Brecht offer their views on why Fairfield is a great place to live. Ms. Craig praises the Community Arts Center as a community gathering place for all ages and all interests. Ms. Brecht emphasizes Fairfield's wide variety of housing options. She says prospective homeowners can choose from quaint starter bungalows to upscale ranches. The choices are endless. Of course Fairfield also offers plenty of quality rental properties.

Jungle Jim praises Fairfield's renowned snow removal efforts and also tells the story of how his business evolved from a humble roadside fruit stand into the iconic supermarket that today is a nationally known tourist destination. He cites the City's flexibility as the ingredient that made it all possible and continues to make Fairfield such a great place to do business.

Produced by Sam Manavis, the five-minute production can be downloaded from the City's website at www.fairfield-city.org. It is also shown regularly on TV 18, Fairfield's community cable channel.

Seward improvements underway

Seward Road remains closed to through traffic until early fall as crews widen the roadway between Port Union and Symmes Road. The project will add dual left turn lanes and widen the shoulders of Seward Road to better accommodate vehicular and truck traffic in the industrial area. The $1.2 million project is funded largely through a grant from the Ohio Public Works Commission and a federal Community Development Block Grant.

- expansions and job growth from numerous businesses, including Pacific Manufacturing, G & W Products, Abba Manufacturing, Masters Pharmaceuticals, OCS IntelliTrak and Western States Machine.

The public infrastructure for the road widening is expected to lead to future private business investment and new job creation. In 2009, a stretch of Seward Road north of the current work zone was widened to accommodate a new building for Takumi Stamping. Takumi now

- employs more than 300 people.
- Construction is expected to be completed in October.

The Seward Road corridor is an important economic development engine for Fairfield. In recent years, the corridor has seen

Citizens' Police Academy open to residents

Have you ever wondered what it is like to be a police officer? Citizens can get an inside view of police work through participation in Fairfield's 2013 Citizens' Police Academy (CPA) being offered this fall. The series of classes will be open to residents and business owners interested in a candid, behind-the-scenes experience in the world of law enforcement.

Applications are now being accepted for the upcoming CPA series, which will be held on Monday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. starting on September 9. Classes will be held at the Fairfield Police Department located in the Justice Center at the corner of Pleasant Avenue and Nilles Road.

The program is designed to provide participants with an overview of law enforcement procedures and protocols so that they can be better informed and more engaged in their community. Topics to be covered include Search & Seizure, Criminal Investigation/Evidence Collection and K-9 Operations. Many sessions will offer hands-on experience. Participant ride-alongs with officers on patrol will be an integral part of the academy experience.

- All sessions will focus on topics and experiences faced by officers on a daily basis.
- Class size will be limited to 15 participants.
- Anyone interested in applying should contact

- Doug Day at dday@fairfield-city.org or 896-8268. An application form is also available online at www.fairfield-city.org.
- Participants must be at least 18 years of age and have an acceptable record free of felony convictions.

Firefighter programs offer interaction with community

- Too often, residents only come in contact with firefighters during an emergency. Fairfield's firefighters, however, have organized several events so that they can interact with citizens on a more casual basis.

Movies in the Park:

- The most popular event is the highly successful Movies in the Park at the Village Green Amphitheater. The program offers a feature film on the first Friday of summer months, with a rain date of the following week (See page 7 for the remaining movie schedule). Safety exhibits and demonstrations are available for the entire family pre-showtime. Thanks to sponsorship by Mercy Health and IAFF Local 4010, free snacks, food, and other give-aways are available. Attendance at this year's events has increased by 40 percent over last year.

Summer Tuesday Safety Series:

- New this year is a safety event sponsored by Kroger on select Tuesday nights from 6 to 8 p.m. Fire equipment and the Safety House are available to educate citizens about fire safety in the home and what to do during dangerous weather.

Special Olympics:

- Firefighters meet the athletes at Fairfield High School Stadium on Saturday mornings to help them practice for various events. The season culminates in mid-June with an annual grill-out at Fire Headquarters for the athletes and their families. Sponsored and funded entirely by the firefighters, the event affords firefighters the opportunity to wish the athletes success before they head off to state-wide competition in Columbus.

Borer infestation reaches Fairfield

The media has been predicting the spread of the emerald ash borer (EAB) for several years. Unfortunately, the borer is now having a devastating effect upon Fairfield's urban forest. Just three years ago, only a few trees were impacted as the insect made its advances into the region. A quarantine that prohibited the transfer of ash firewood slowed the spread of the insects, but did not prevent the inevitable.

The EAB invades ash trees as tiny larvae by burrowing under the bark. Adults are dark metallic green, 1/2 inch in length and 1/8 inch wide, and fly only from mid-May to September with the peak occurring in June. Some of the signs of an infested tree include distinct "D" shaped exit holes, die-back of the crown (top of the tree), water sprouts and vertical splits in the tree's bark. The insects

- generally kill ash trees within three to five years of infestation. Without treatment a borer infestation has proven to be 100% fatal.
- Contact a local arborist for information on how to prevent an infestation of your ash tree.
- In 2007 the City inventoried ash trees within the public right-of-way as well as those on municipally owned property. Of the 640 ash trees inventoried an estimated 80 percent have been infected or killed by the EAB invasion.
- The number of ash trees on private property is not known since the 2007 tree inventory did not survey privately-owned trees. However, a drive through area neighborhoods clearly shows that all ash trees have been heavily impacted.
- In the last year, Public Works crews have removed 67 ash trees from municipally owned - properties and from the public right-of-way.

- All of the removed trees were dead or dying from the EAB infestation. Aesthetically significant trees on municipal property have been identified and are being treated for preservation.
- Residents with ash trees located in the public right-of-way (generally between the street and sidewalk) are asked to call the Public Works Department at 867-4200 if they suspect that their ash trees have been impacted by the EAB.
- The Public Works and Parks Departments are currently working on a plan to address the trees located within the public right-of-way.
- General information regarding the EAB will be updated periodically on the City's website at www.fairfield-city.org/parks/emeraldash.cfm.
- For more information, visit www.agri.ohio.gov/eab.

Fairfield OH BUSINESS BOOSTER

Duke Energy grant advances Koch project

Duke Energy recently awarded Fairfield with a $100,000 economic development grant to help facilitate public infrastructure upgrades necessary for the Koch Foods expansion project.

Last year, Koch Foods began construction to nearly double the capacity of its Port Union Road plant. A major challenge surrounding the project involves sewer capacity. The City has worked closely with company engineers, the Butler County Water & Sewer Department, and the Ohio EPA to devise a strategy to safely and effectively manage the large amounts of existing and projected wastewater that the chicken processing plant will produce.

After a thorough study, it was determined that the best resolution of the wastewater challenge involves directing more of the flow through Fairfield's Seward Road sewage pumping station, which is located approximately one-half mile from the Koch Foods facility. The current pumping station sufficiently handles most of the flow from the surrounding industrial businesses, but in order to handle the dramatically increased flow once the Koch Foods project is completed, engineering consultants recommended the replacement of the pumping station. The current station is aging, lacks sufficient holding capacity, and lacks backup emergency power generation.

The initial cost estimate for a replacement pumping station is $260,000. With the help of the Duke Energy grant, the new lift station will be installed in late 2013. This public infrastructure upgrade will allow the Koch Foods facility expansion to proceed. 🌐

Accutek success prompts major expansion

Accutek Testing Laboratory, located at the corner of Bypass 4 and Port Union Road, recently broke ground on an expansion to accommodate the firm's continued growth in its mechanical and metallurgical testing services. This expansion comes only two and a half years after the company bought the building and moved into Fairfield. Since then, the company has doubled its revenue and employee count.

Accutek Testing Laboratory is a full-service facility for testing product performance and failure analysis. Staffed by experienced engineering professionals, the company performs mechanical testing for a variety of clients in the medical device, aerospace, manufacturing, and power generation industries.

The expansion project will add roughly 4,000 square feet of new office space and will convert 8,000 square feet of warehouse into additional conditioned laboratory space. The extra square footage of office and lab space will allow Accutek to maintain the impressive growth that the company has experienced in recent years.

"Accutek's focus is finding better ways to support our customers in their design and development projects," said Accutek President John McCloy. "The expansion and renovation of our facility positions us for enhanced in-house testing capacity and capabilities." 🌐

Hampton Inn completes major renovations

In May, the Hampton Inn Fairfield, located on Kolb Drive next to Cincinnati Mall, celebrated a grand re-opening after completing a $3 million renovation to the 100-room hotel. The renovation included all guest rooms, lobby area, the indoor pool, 24-hour fitness center, the business center with high-speed internet, breakfast area, and meeting space. Middletown Hotel Management has owned and operated the property since the doors opened in July 1999.

"We are very proud and excited!" said Lindsay Shaver, General Manager, Middletown Hotel Management. "The renovation has brought the property a fresh, contemporary and modern standard."

For information call 513-942-3440 or visit the website at www.cincinnati-fairfield.hamptoninn.com.

Performance Toyota expansion begins

By early next year, Performance Toyota will complete a $2.7 million expansion at its facility on State Route 4. After a year in planning, the renovation will add 27,670 square feet to the dealership's sales and service areas.

Plans call for a significant expansion to the service area, including dozens of service bays, a significantly expanded service write-up area, a new car delivery area and an expanded sales facility.

G&W Products grows to second location

G&W Products, a metal manufacturing and coating company located on Seward Road, has experienced strong growth in recent years. To accommodate this growth and the need for more production space, the company recently expanded into a second Fairfield facility on Stockton Road.

The company operates in a wide variety of metal working capacities, including metal stamping, laser cutting, CNC punching, metal fabrication, manual and robotic welding, machining, structural steel working, sheet metal fabrication, tube fabrication, wire forming, tool and die work, powder coating and assembly.

Rotary names Officer of the Year

Last year, Fairfield Police Officer Ralph King arrested 673 people. By mid-year this year, he had made 339 apprehensions. Making arrests is the focus of his job as one of Fairfield's Warrant Officers, who find those who have not made their court appearance or failed to complete a court requirement as part of their probation.

Officer King has been named the Fairfield Rotary Club's Police Officer of the Year in recognition of his ongoing dedication and daily diligence in the performance of his job.

Officer King has worked for the Fairfield Police Department since 1991. His wife Ellie is also an officer with the Department.

Police Chief gets regional award

Fairfield Police Chief Mike Dickey has received the Ernest W. Howard Commitment Award, named in honor of Monroe's Police Chief who retired in 2003 with 42 years of service to law enforcement. The award is given annually to a local chief who personifies the attributes taught at the Respect for Law Camp, a weekend youth training camp at Miami University.

Sponsored by the Butler County Chiefs of Police Association, the camp provides intensive introduction to 11 to 14 year-olds interested in law enforcement. During the classes, participants actively learn aspects of real-life police duties. The camp is designed to improve self-esteem and self-confidence while teaching self-discipline, self-respect and respect for law.

City Manager earns top OCMA honor

Fairfield City Manager Art Pizzano has been recognized with the 2013 Career Achievement Award by the Ohio City/County Management Association. Mr. Pizzano has worked in local government for 40 years, the last 15 with Fairfield.

Mr. Pizzano has made it his goal to leave the community a better place than when he arrived. He has been credited with many accomplishments, among them the creation of an identifiable downtown center at Village Green. His foresight — along with guidance from elected officials — is also credited with Fairfield weathering the recent recession without service cutbacks or personnel layoffs. Mr. Pizzano is quick to recognize his staff's diligence in receiving his recent accolade.

Brush/Limb pick-ups underway

With summer yard work in full swing, residents may want to take advantage of the City's monthly curbside brush and limb pick-up program. The service is available upon request by calling the Public Works Department at 867-4200 or by sending an email request to publicworks@fairfield-city.org.

length must be placed in cans, or tied using a natural fiber, biodegradable cord (cotton, linen or twine). Bundles tied with wire, plastic or nylon cord cannot be picked up.

Pick-up requests are placed on a monthly route. Pick-ups are made in areas west of Pleasant Avenue the first Monday of the month. Areas between Pleasant and Winton Road are served in the second week. On the third week of the month, pick-ups are made in areas east of Winton Road. The service is available by request through October.

Brush/Limb Pick-up Guidelines

- Under the program, limbs must be no longer than 10 feet.
- Small branches shorter than four feet in

- Bundles must weigh no more than 60 pounds.
- Brush deposited into cans cannot contain rocks or other materials since they can cause damage when run through the chipper or cause serious injury to the operators.
- Bundles and limbs must be placed at the edge of the street, but not beyond the curb or on the pavement.
- Pickups are limited to once per month per household.
- Service must be scheduled at least one week in advance, since crews prepare pickup routes by address and do not run regular routes through neighborhoods.

For those really big clean-up jobs...

In some cases, a resident may have a large quantity of limbs and other brush that cannot be accommodated through the Call-In Limb Pickup Program. For those occasions, the City of Fairfield also offers its "Operation Dump Box" program in an effort to meet those needs.

Under this program, the City will deliver to a City residence a roll-off dump box into which the resident may load limbs and other brush for disposal by the City. This service is offered on a first-come, first-served basis. For information, call 867-4200.

How to schedule a Dump Box

- Sign up for the service at the City's Public Works Department at 8870 North Gilmore Road (Weekday hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.). Residents will be required to sign a release form when the debris box is reserved. Available dates are generally scheduled far in advance—so be sure to plan ahead. For information, call 867-4200. Dump boxes will not be delivered, picked up or dumped on Saturdays, Sundays or scheduled holidays. The use of a dump box is limited to two consecutive days, and up to two occasions per year, per household. The City will only dump debris boxes once per day.

■ A dump box is generally delivered on the scheduled date between 7 and 9 a.m. Pick-ups are made on the scheduled date between the hours of 1 and 2:30 p.m. The dump box will be placed on the driveway.

■ It is best to cut limbs to no more than four feet in length so that they will fit in the box. Overhanging loads are not permitted. The dimensions of the box are: 8 feet wide, 10 feet long, and 42 inches deep.

■ Only biodegradable plant materials can be placed into the box. No building materials, plastic bags or trash will be accepted. Grass clippings are also prohibited. The material may be unloaded at the residence if a load is contaminated with trash or other unacceptable materials.

FAIRFIELD Bits and Pieces

New pumps ensure continuous drive at SR 4 underpass

Long-time residents can remember the closure of State Route 4 at the railroad underpass near the Fairfield-Hamilton border during heavy rains. A pump station was installed in 1936 to help control flooding. The pump station has undergone upgrades over the years through a collaborative arrangement between Fairfield and Hamilton. Under the arrangement, Hamilton supplies the electric to run the pump station, while Fairfield maintains the equipment, including standby emergency generators.

In early July, high efficiency 27-horsepower pumps were installed by the Fairfield Public Utilities Department, with traffic control provided by Fairfield Public Works. Now online, the new pumps are capable of moving 1,500 gallons of water per minute from a storm well at the underpass to a nearby culvert. The new pumps replace equipment installed in 1980.

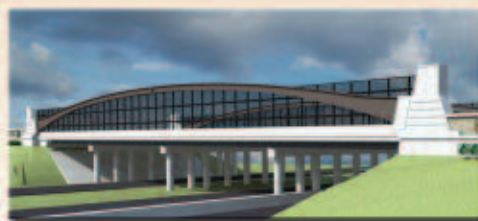

Hydrants checked annually

For firefighters, checking a fire hydrant is a simple routine; the challenge lies in sheer numbers. The annual hydrant test program involves 3,244 hydrants. Each unit is tested annually for overall condition and operation. If a problem is detected, the Public Utility Department promptly makes repairs.

Bridge nears completion

Road construction is complete on Gilmore Road over I-275 and final line painting is underway. The City expects to take delivery of the arch for the sides of the bridge in August, with installation to be complete by the end of the month.

5K run/walk to be held at Water Works Park

The fourth annual Race for Global Water will be held at Water Works Park on Saturday, October 26, beginning at 9 a.m. The 5K run/walk event is a fundraiser sponsored by the Hamilton to New Baltimore Groundwater Consortium (of which Fairfield is a member).

Proceeds of the event benefit the non-profit organization Water for People, which funds projects that establish sources of clean drinking water in developing countries. The group reports that 6,000 people — mainly children — die daily because they do not have access to clean water and sanitation.

Past runs have generated more than $20,000 annually. For more information, visit gwconsortium.org/water-for-people.php.
